

Task List

Use the following list to help you set your priorities for the up-coming week.

- First, make a list of tasks that require time from your life.
- Second, estimate the amount of time you need for each task.
- Third, prioritize each task, using an A, B, C system.
  - A = necessary or urgent
  - B = important but not necessary or urgent
  - C = not necessary or urgent
- Fourth, schedule these tasks on the weekly planner.
